

I think that the Do Not Call should remain in effect. I will not participate in anything that I get a call from. The calls are annoying and a disruption to family life.